

FROM D-DAY TO VICTORY IN EUROPE

Written and narrated by MAX HASTINGS,
author of "Battle for the Falklands",
"Overlord" and "Bomber Command".

May 8, 1945 was a turning point in the history of the world. The titanic struggle against the forces of Nazi Germany ended in victory for the Allies.

The triumphs and tragedies of the last eventful year of war in Europe are critically reappraised in this two-hour cassette.

The action is shown, as it happened, by the cameramen on the battlefields.

Strategy and tactics of the opposing forces are brought vividly to life by computer graphics in this illuminating and authoritative account.

Produced by Bob Hunter

From ITN & Granada who also produced the best-selling videos "Battle for the Falklands" and "D-Day" - The Great Crusade"

Sources: British and American Pathé Newsfilm; Imperial War Museum; Transit Films, Germany; ETV, USSR; and Contemporary Films, Poland.

CONTENTS

1. D-Day
2. The Battle of Normandy
3. The Push South
4. Liberation
5. Triumph and Tragedy
6. Bombardment from the Air
7. The Battle of the Bulge
8. The Road to the Rhine
9. The Battle for Berlin
10. The End
11. Peace

VHS

GVE 845 023 2
Colour/Black & White

625 PAL

Running time: approx. 112 mins.

Warning: This videogram is for private domestic use only. Any unauthorized copying, hiring, lending or public performance of this videogram is illegal.

© ITN/GRANADA MCMLXXXV

Distributed by:

PolyGramVideo

VICTORY IN EUROPE FROM D-DAY TO

GVE 845 023 2

VHS

FROM D-DAY TO VICTORY IN EUROPE

It was the last year of World War II. In Europe, Allied forces were engaged in the epic struggle to rid the world of its greatest tyrant and, in doing so, reshape our history.

This is the illuminating account of that struggle, shown as it happened.

Written and narrated by MAX HASTINGS
An ITN/GRANADA Production

GRANADA
VIDEO