

HISTORIC LUDLOW
HEART OF THE SHROPSHIRE MARCHES

THE STORY OF LUDLOW
FROM ITS ORIGINS IN TROPICAL SEAS
THROUGH ITS TURBULENT AND DRAMATIC
HISTORY, TO THE CREATIVE AND PROSPEROUS
COMMUNITY OF TODAY

INTRODUCED BY
SIR ROY STRONG
NARRATED BY ANTHONY HOWARD

HISTORIC LEWIS
W

HEART OF THE SHROPSHIRE MARCHES

PRODUCTION

The South Shropshire town of Ludlow, set like a jewel in the glorious countryside of the borders of England and Wales attracts tourists from all over the world. For them it has everything: history, beauty, romance and drama.

Starting over four hundred million years ago when the whole of Shropshire lay south of the Equator and progressing through recorded history, this fascinating tale unfolds. In the Middle Ages Ludlow was the capital of Wales. Edward V was proclaimed king here and Henry VIII's brother died here. Enormous wealth was created and spent here making Ludlow one of the most beautiful towns in Europe.

RUNNING TIME
approx. 45 mins.

Anthony Howard lives in Ludlow. During a long career as a Fleet St. journalist, he has written two political biographies and made regular contributions to both radio and television. He is currently an Editor with The Times.

Sir Roy Strong is a former director of The Victoria and Albert Museum, London. As well as being an internationally renowned art historian and author of many books, he is an authority on garden history and a regular contributor to both radio and television. He lives locally.

Based on original research by David Lloyd, historical consultant.

© QV PRODUCTION 1995

Quality Video Production Ltd.
Pride Hill House, 23 St. Mary's Street
Shrewsbury, Shropshire SY1 1ED

The South Shropshire town of Ludlow, set like a jewel in the glorious countryside of the borders of England and Wales attracts tourists from all over the world. For them it has everything: history, beauty, romance and drama.

Starting over four hundred million years ago when the whole of Shropshire lay south of the Equator and progressing through recorded history, this fascinating tale unfolds. In the Middle Ages Ludlow was the capital of Wales. Edward V was proclaimed king here and Henry VIII's brother died here. Enormous wealth was created and spent here making Ludlow one of the most beautiful towns in Europe.

Anthony Howard lives in Ludlow. During a long career as a Fleet St. journalist, he has written two political biographies and made regular contributions to both radio and television. He is currently an Editor with The Times.

Sir Roy Strong is a former director of The Victoria and Albert Museum, London. As well as being an internationally renowned art historian and author of many books, he is an authority on garden history and a regular contributor to both radio and television. He lives locally.

Based on original research by David Lloyd, historical consultant.

© QV PRODUCTION 1995

Quality Video Production Ltd.
Pride Hill House, 23 St. Mary's Street
Shrewsbury, Shropshire SY1 1ED

RUNNING TIME
approx. 45 mins.

HISTORIC LUDLOW
HEART OF THE SHROPSHIRE MARCHES

QV
PRODUCTION

HISTORIC LUDLOW
HEART OF THE SHROPSHIRE MARCHES

THE STORY OF LUDLOW
FROM ITS ORIGINS IN TROPICAL SEAS
THROUGH ITS TURBULENT AND DRAMATIC
HISTORY, TO THE CREATIVE AND PROSPEROUS
COMMUNITY OF TODAY

INTRODUCED BY
SIR ROY STRONG
NARRATED BY ANTHONY HOWARD