MENS SANA IN THINGUMMY DOODAH

Written by and starring Victoria Wood
With Julie Walters

Health farms, chat shows and video dating plus the reality of everyday single life – how's a girl to cope?

Exercise a little of her irresistible wit and unique style, of course! So here's a sparkling collection of three half hour shows from the irrepressible Victoria Wood and a few of her friends...

MENS SANA IN THINGUMMY DOODAH

Snatched away to the purgatory of Pinkney's health farm by her determined friend Lill who's desperate to reshape her body and ensnare her married lover once and for all, Victoria's pretty miserable. What with Enid and her water retention, Connie and her runaway midriff, miniscule portions and jogging practice at 6.25 a.m., things are getting a bit out of hand.

THE LIBRARY

Run by the terrible Madge – who thinks book burning is a sensible alternative to gas central heating – the biggest excitement in Victoria's local library at the moment is waiting for the Domesday Book to come out in paperback. But things are hotting up there now that Victoria's friend has discovered the library's the ideal place to watch her new video dating cassettes. And two's company, three's definitely a crowd when Victoria decides to tag along on the dates to root out any potential axe-murderers...

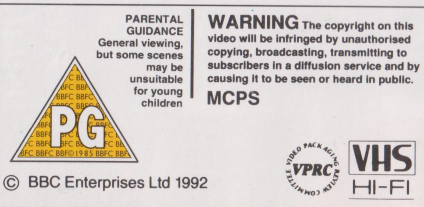

OVER TO PAM

When Victoria's friend Lorraine ducks out of her appearance on Live with Pam, one of TV's top talk shows, it's up to Victoria to save the day – and the show. Trouble is, Pam's rather a nightmare – all tie neck blouse and slingbacks – and Victoria's not very tolerant of the Margaret Thatcher look...
